

LAST WORD SOCIETY

---

Thursday

Moderator: Kenneth Melson, JD

- |                  |            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------------------|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 pm—8:20 pm  | LW1 | Olof: Ancestors Heir or Disney Snowman? Solving Something ColdCathryn Fahey, BS; Daren Boyd, BS*; Tamara Mick, MS; Katherine White, BSc;Janey Dunn, MScFS; Jerrie Northrup, BS                                |
| 8:20 pm—8:40 pm  | LW2 | America 250: Forensic Science and the Hessian Soldiers' Remains "Intrenched" in a Mass Grave at Red Bank Battlefield, Gloucester County, New JerseyThomas Crist, PhD*; Anna Delaney, DCrim; Stuart Alexander, DMD |
| 8:40 pm—9:00 pm  | LW3 | Many Minds or Many Frauds? The Insane Case of Billy MilliganGeorge Annas, MD, MPH*                                                                                                                                |
| 9:00 pm—9:20 pm  | LW4 | The Loaded Case of the Banned BulletMaria Nektaria Antoniou, LLM, MSt*; Nicholas Marquez-Grant, PhD; Rick Schulting, PhD                                                                                          |
| 9:20 pm—9:40 pm  | LW5 | The (Not Always) Good Old Times: The Inquisition as the Basis of Modern Forensic InvestigationMatteo Borrini, PhD*; Vincenzo Lusa, JD                                                                             |
| 9:40 pm—10:00 pm | LW6 | Where in the World Are All These Skeletons From? Anthropology, Odontology, Stable Isotopes, and EthicsWolf Bueschgen, DMD*; Suzanne Abel, PhD                                                                     |